The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur le dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) The members of the Association are expected to extend fraternal care to one another in sickness, misfortune or distress, and to members' families in bereavement. The industrious, however, shall not be required to lightly bestow their substance upon the shiftless and improvident.

(2) Members of the Association are expected to cultivate harmonious relations with all other farmers' associations or organizations.

(3) Members should help each other in their business relations and they should never go to law over their differences until all other means of agreement and settlement are exhausted. In all such cases the association recommends arbitration.

(4) Due decorum must be observed in all the meetings, and presiding officers are given ample power to enforce order. Cushing's and Robert's manuals are given as authorities for parliamentary rules and usages.

(5) Every effort should be made to encourage young persons to take part in the exercises, and all should regard the meetings as schools of progress and advancement. The members are enjoined to faithfully attend the meetings and spare no pains to make them interesting and profitable.

(6) Co-operation is the great means by which we are to overcome the evil effects of hurtful combinations, and members are urged to avail themselves of every opportunity for profitable co-operation with each other, but we should never let this purpose breed a spirit of antagonism between legitimate local interests.

(7) Co-operative marketing is the means in our hands for compelling equitable prices for our products, and members should hold it their duty to adhere strictly to that principle, and urge that their neighbors do the same, even if not members. Adherence to this principle is a test of good membership, and all are expected to direct their best efforts thereto.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

The following order of business at all meetings of the branches is suggested as a guide:

1. Call to order by President or Chairman.
2. Call the roll of officers, noting those present. The chairman will fill vacancies.
3. Call the roll of paid up members, noting those present.
4. Reading and disposing of minutes of previous meeting.
5. Reading of all official communications received by the Secretary.
6. Call for applications for Membership.
7. Reports of Committees.
8. Unfinished business.
9. Addresses and discussions.
10. Opening of question drawer.
11. Election of officers (Annual Meeting.)
12. New business.

(1) Does any member know of a case of sickness, distress or death in the neighborhood that needs special attention?

(2) If so, appoint a special committee to take up such cases, and devise ways and means for handling same.

(3) Members wishing work.

(4) Members requiring help.

(5) Members wishing to sell anything.

(6) Members wishing to buy anything.

(7) Members wishing to report a grievance.

(8) Report on market conditions affecting the products of the neighborhood.

(9) General crop prospects of the neighborhood.

(10) Any matter for insertion in official bulletins of association.

(11) Discussion of topics for general good and welfare.

(13) Social entertainment. (It is understood that the ladies and young people are always welcome at the meetings and a special effort should be made to get them to take part in all discussions that may be arranged.)

(14) Has the regular report been forwarded to the Central Office?

(15) Adjournment.

The following are also suggested as rules for the conduct of business:—

(1) Except by permission of the presiding officer, no member or other person should speak except to ask a question or to introduce or speak to a motion.

(2) In the discussions following the introduction of a subject, no person should speak more than twice or for a longer time than five minutes, except by a vote of the meeting.

(3) When a question is under consideration no motion should be in order except the following:—(1) to adjourn; (2) to postpone; (3) to amend. These motions take precedence in the order named, and the first two should be decided without debate.

(4) Before the vote is taken on any motion or amendment, the President should ask: "Is the meeting ready for the question?" The motion should not be put so long as any members desires to speak and is in order. Any member desirous of asking a question on the subject introduced may do so verbally; but if he desires to ask more than two questions he should submit them to the secretary in writing.
